Message from Rev Ruth

Dear all

I am meeting with Rev Paul Critchley to plan a phased return to work this week. At the moment I still can't drive so I will be limited, but back. Despite the rumours that I am retiring!!!!

Rev Ruth

Thanks from the Fox Family

I am writing to you on behalf of Ruth, Paul and myself to thank you so much for such a lovely service on Wednesday 12th February when Dad's ashes were scattered in the Garden of Remembrance at church. We never expected so many of Dads special friends to be there. Many of them, who weren't in the best of health and in their senior years, had braved the elements to be there and it was an occasion we will cherish and remember in the years ahead.
One of the most comforting things for all of us, has been the love conveyed to us from all the people at Cleveleys Park who knew him. With our love and warm wishes from Susan Grey (fomerly Fox), Ruth Holden, Paul Fox.

"Healing/Praying Hands" Soothing Stones

The above are available for sale in the Lounge, alongside the Birthday Cards.

They are handmade, well presented and with a reassuring message.

They are very tactile and can be held in the hands when praying, to help your thoughts and concentration.

At a cost of £3 each (£7 for the larger ones) they could also provide a lovely inexpensive gift to someone you know, who may appreciate a little extra comfort and reassurance.
